

The allowing of the the email-robots to use parts of the 20 meter amateur radio frequency allocations would be causing interference to the primary user. Considering what just happened with the hurricanes in the southern part of the U.S., this would be a disaster waiting to happen for communication purposes. Please reject RM-11306 and not allow the use of email robots on the 20 meter ham band.